New York City.

Dear Sir:

I am in possession of a number of old coins and medals, the value of which I shall very much like to discover.

Will you please let me know whether anyone on your staff will be in a position to appraise these pieces. I am naturally prepared to pay a reasonable fee.

Yours truly,

Myron M. Schwarzschild

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of July 12th addressed to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and forwarded to us for reply, I would suggest your bringing to our Society the coins and medals of which you write, and I shall be glad to tell you what I can about them. Kindly make your appointment any Wednesday.

Very truly yours,

Curator
